Re: Notice of Ex Parte Presentation
IB Docket No. 01-185

Dear Ms. Dortch:

On August 20, 2002, Van Greenfield, the Chairman of the Official Creditors' Committee ("Committee") of Globalstar, L.P. ("Globalstar"), and Tom W. Davidson and Phil Marchesiello, communications counsel for the Committee (collectively "Creditors"), met with several Federal Communications Commission ("Commission") representatives. The Creditors first met with Evan Kwerel of the Commission's Office of Plans and Policy to discuss the potential implications from an economic policy perspective of auctioning flexible access to Mobile-Satellite Service spectrum allocations.

The Creditors next met with Sam Feder, legal advisor to Commissioner Kevin Martin, and discussed Globalstar's current financial situation and how imperative it is that the FCC expeditiously resolve its pending flexible use proceeding, IB Docket No. 01-185. The Creditor's noted that Globalstar may not have sufficient cash on hand to remain in full operation for the remainder of the year.

Finally, the Creditors met with Breck Blalock, Howard Griboff, Linda Haller, Trey Hanbury, Karl Kensinger, Paul Locke, and Doug Webbink of the Commission's International Bureau. The Creditors discussed Globalstar's current financial situation and several actions which the Creditors have considered to resolve the financial situation, including the acquisition of additional financing or capital, a reduction or cessation of service (in compliance with any applicable FCC rules regarding discontinuance). The Creditors emphasized the importance to Globalstar of expeditiously resolving the pending, above-referenced proceeding.
